Guidance notes for completing the application form

Please read these notes carefully before completing the application form.

Read all the information carefully before completing the application form and please note that you must complete the application form – CVs will not be accepted.

The person specification is very important, as the interview panel will use these criteria as a checklist when they are short-listing. They reflect the essential skills that will enable the successful candidate to carry out the duties of the post. You need therefore to respond to all aspects of the person specification when you are completing the application form and remember, it is not enough just to say that you can do something, you need to be able to give examples from your experience.

When you are referring to the experience, skills and knowledge that you have, draw on things you have done in a voluntary capacity and on life experiences as well as on your employment experience. Don't forget to include any relevant training.

Application form

The form must be completed legibly in black ink or typed. You may use up to two sides of one A4 continuation sheet if you cannot fit everything you want to say in the section on your suitability for the post. Make sure your application number/name is written clearly on the continuation sheet you use.

Completed applications may be emailed to info@richmondcarers.org by the time and date advertised.
